MAKING THE WORKPLACE A BETTER PLACE

Standard Terms and Conditions

Unless specified in the quotation, prices and terms are valid for 30 days from the date of the quotation. For military and government quotes validity is set at 60 days. If an unconditional and complete authorization is not received by the Buyer for shipment of goods in the specified time period, Champion shall have the right to change the price of the products and services .

Product Returns

Return of Non-Defective Goods: Written approval from Champion's customer service is required to return merchandise. All merchandise must be returned within 30 days from the invoice date and be returned in original and unopened packaging.

Returns must meet Champion's then-current minimum return value and may be subject to a then-current restock charge. Exceptions are configured or custom orders, special color products, made-to-order goods which are not returnable.

Shipment & Delivery

Champion will use all reasonable commercial efforts to maintain the delivery date acknowledged or quoted, however, all shipping dates are approximate and not guaranteed. Champion reserves the right to make partial shipments. Champion, at its option, shall not be bound to deliver products or services where the Buyer has not provided shipping instructions and other required information. If the shipment of products is postponed or delayed by the Buyer for any reason, the Buyer agrees to reimburse Champion for any and all resulting storage costs or additional expenses.
